THIS IS A WORK IN PROGRESS

MANY STATES ARE INCOMPLETE
PLEASE READ FIRST PART OF INTRODUCTION TO UNDERSTAND HOW THIS LIST
DEVELOPED AND WHY IT DIFFERS FROM PLACE TO PLACE.

With several promptings I determined to establish a list of users of Precancel Envelopes. The list grew through three phases.

1. My list began with listing only the user.
2. Then I decided to show whether it was a Government contracted print or a local corner card.
3. Then I recognized the need to separate the styles of local printing

So some states show more of the earlier styles where others have been brought up to date. Eventually I hope to get back and redo all that did not meet the final choice.

Each time a new order was placed small differences in type may occur, most often noted as shifts of one row of letters under the above row. These are not noted.

Listings are alphabetical with these provisos:

1. Names of individuals are by their last name. This includes Fraternal Lodges that are often named after an individual

2. Names preceded by "The, A, or For" are listed by the word following "The, A, or For" where appropriate

Example:

The Edward P. Fairchild Mfg. Co.

Is listed under Fairchild

3. corner cards with street addresses or building room numbers only precede the alphabetical listing.

4. Corner Cards with Post office box numbers only precede the street addresses

5. corner cards with statements appear with the first main word in the statement

Listings do not include variations in printing of the corner card which do not change the spelling. Some businesses through the years may have used:

1. Government printed corner cards. In these the lettering matches that of the precancel. Three Styles are possible. The same company may have several different forms of their name and address.

2. Locally printed Corner Cards. These may be plain or fancy. Some companies, notably Parker Brothers of Salem, MA used many different corner cards depicting company products.

3. Mimeograph or Stencil
4. Handstamp
5. Manuscript
6. Sticker added to envelope
7. Embossed or raised uncolored lettering.

Where multiple designs are possible some effort has been made to list those varieties. However minor varieties such as addition of "return postage guaranteed" are not listed.

(fancy) = Elaborate corner card or advertising. Envelopes with a message for a corner card will automatically be considered fancy.

Italics = where a statement appears instead of the company name, italics are used. When first preparing the list quotation marks were used, then it became apparent that quotation marks appeared in some corner cards. Some of these older listings may still exist.

Many Service Organizations have their Emblem on their corner card. These are so numerous that only the exceptional one will be noted.

(back) = identity or image on back of envelope, usually on the flap

Embossed = raised lettering, not inked.

Vertical = corner card reads vertically
Italics - words in italics are messages, not the name of the company.

Have You Ever Drank Moonshine Whiskey?

Pure, strong whiskey made from corn or rye—not chemically colored or perfumed—but just as it came from the still!

The book tells how to make it—this book will be worth many times its price to you after Jan. 16, 1920. Get enough now for yourself and friends. Stock up.

THE cheap whiskeys and wines you have drunk were mostly made from a wood or spirit alcohol base cleverly faked and dozed for your taste and containing one or more of these ingredients—citric acid, tannic acid, vinegar, glycerine, glucose, silent spirit, octanitic ether, benzine ether or creosote—nice stuff to put in your stomach, wasn't it?

The other day, a man died in Kentucky at the age of 117 and they said that the moonshine whiskey he had drunk all his life, had finally killed him.

You can in your kitchen make better, purer, whiskey, beer or wine than you have ever bought, unless you paid a big price for it. The outfit is simple and easy to make and you can have the goods as strong or as weak as you wish. Whiskey for less than $1 a gallon; Beer for 20c a gallon and wines from 10c to 80c a gal. It is hard to reach all who are interested, with these cards—so we ask you to hand or mail this card to a friend after you order. It's going to be mighty dry soon, and maybe your friend would appreciate this book. Send them out for Xmas—send us their names and we will mail the book to them direct with your name inside, all postage paid. SEND A DOLLAR BILL—Postal order, Express order or stamps

Trades Book Co., Virginia, Minn.
National Prohibition in effect Jan. 16, 1920 will prohibit the sale of these books. Send in your order now, write your name and address plainly

WHISKEY, BEER AND WINE

Plain, simply written formula that will tell you how to make pure drinks (not substitutes or dozes) in your own home—8 to 100 proof whiskey—6 to 15% beer and wine from 5 to 60 proof (brandy). You can make pure strong drinks by following these directions from Raisins, Potatoes, Oats, Rice, Millet, Malts, Grapes, Elderberry, Cherry, Blackberry, Raspberry, Apricots, Apple, Clover, Currants, Dandelions, Oranges, Peaches, Prunes, Rhubarb, Plums and other ingredients. Color if you wish with burnt sugar, caramel, etc

PICTURES SHOWING HOW TO MAKE AND OPERATE TWO KINDS OF STILLS

PRICES: 1 book $1.00, 5 books $3.50, 10 books $6.00, 20 books $10. AGENTS WANTED. No trouble to sell this book after you show it. Order 5 or more and start work. Drawings of stills alone are worth the price. Send yours to your friend, they will appreciate it. Invest some money in here, books—they will bring a big price soon.

HAND OR MAIL THIS CARD TO A FRIEND AFTER YOU SEND IN YOUR ORDER

It's going to be mighty dry after January 1920—so get your order in quick. Just fold a dollar bill in an envelope with your NAME AND ADDRESS PLAINLY WRITTEN and we will mail the book all postage prepaid and wrapped plain—no printing on package to show what it contains. REMEMBER—National Prohibition in effect January 16, 1920 will prohibit the sale of these books. Positively no orders filled after January 12, 1920.
